TRIBAL VETERANS AND ARCOLA FIREFIGHTERS PAUSE FOR 9/11 REMEMBRANCE / PATRIOT DAY

“NATIONAL DAY OF SERVICE” EVENT

On Sept. 11th, 2025, members of the Haliwa Saponi Veterans Memorial (HSVM) Committee were joined by Fire Chief Glenn Pulley and Arcola Fire Department members as they paused to reflect on and commemorate the 24th year since the terrorist attacks of September 11th, 2001.

Prior to commencing their 2nd Annual “Morning of Service” roadside cleanup event they lowered the flags at both the Haliwa-Saponi Veterans Memorial and the Chief W. R. Richardson Government Complex to half-staff. A prayer was offered by veteran and HSVM Committee member Pastor Al Cooper, followed by a moment of silence, and a brief ceremony in honor of the nearly 3,000 victims lost on that tragic day. HSVM Committee Co-Chair, Jewel Bissonnette gave a special tribute to the many first responders whose actions saved countless lives as they answered the call for help that day and who, in so doing, made the ultimate sacrifice in service to others.

As they commenced the roadside cleanup of trash and debris alongside Highway 561 from the Tribal Daycare Building to Essex intersection and back, the Arcola Fire Department fire truck served as traffic control, slowing down the usual speeding cars and logging trucks while ensuring the safety of those conducting the cleanup. Their presence served as a visual representation of the first responders on duty that fateful day and a reminder of those who safeguard us in our tribal communities each and every day.

Let us never forget to honor the memory of all the souls we lost that day, as well as the lives that were lost in the ensuing years as our U.S. Armed Forces served and fought in the Global War on Terror.

Special thanks to Fire Chief Glenn Pulley, Asst Chief Jesse Seward, Capt. Jakob Lynch, Lt. Devontae Dancy and Firefighter Justin Davis, as well as HSVM Co-Chair Sylvia E. Richardson, Rev. Al Cooper, Kim Silver, Bobby J. Richardson, and William “Willie” Evans.

I salute you all,
Jewel (McGee) Bissonnette
HSVM Committee Co-Chair
