

Shalene Kanseah

Tribal Administrator | www.haliwa-saponi.org

Email: skanseah@haliwa-saponi.org | Phone: (252) 629.7022

Place of Birth: Fontana, California, USA

Nationality: Native American, Tribal Enrolled Member of the Mescalero Apache Tribe in Mescalero, New Mexico

Education: Central New Mexico Community College, AA, Liberal Arts, Albuquerque, NM. University of New Mexico, BS Ed. Education/MS Ed. Education/Community Health, Albuquerque, NM, University of New Mexico Continuing Education, Post-Grad Certificate Substance Abuse Studies, Albuquerque, NM, Central New Mexico Community College, Post-Grad Certificate Special Education, Albuquerque, NM

Professional Summary:

With over 10 years of Tribal Government experience, as Grants Administrator, Natural Resource Manager, Healing to Wellness Court Coordinator, Social Services Coordinator, Youth Development Program Administrator, Drug Court Director, Ms. Kanseah has a wealth of knowledge in Federal Grants, Tribal Administration, Accounting, Procurement Practices, and Program Development within Indian Country.

Skills: Tribal Specific Administration, Leadership, Grant Administration, Program Development, Federal Grant Writing, Accounting, Service Orientation, Project Management

Personal Interest:

In her free time, Shalene enjoys hiking, reading, learning new skills, and spending time with her adult children. Her personal passion is assisting Native Americans to become empowered through self-governance and tribal sovereignty.